

More Events in Your Diocese and Your Parish:

Send a prayer intention to Bishop Callahan

On Thursday December 7, 2017, Bishop Callahan will be inviting you to share a prayer intention via an automated phone message. If you have a particular intention for which you would like him to pray, follow the prompts at the end of his message. If you miss the call or would like to leave an intention at a later date call 608-352-9565 or visit www.diolc.org/pray to submit your prayer intention online.

Webinar - How Do You Survive Divorce?

It doesn't matter if you wanted the divorce or not, are the one who left or filed, or were abandoned ... the wounds are deep. Rose Sweet, a leading expert in the pastoral issues surrounding separation, divorce, Catholic Decree of Nullity, remarriage, and blended families will be featured in a free webinar on Thursday, November 9th at 7:00 PM. To register go to diolc.org/marriage/webinars/.

Advocate for pending pro-life legislation

There is pending pro-life legislation on both the state and federal level. Great opportunities lie before us. Make your voice heard. Visit www.diolc.org/respect-life to learn how.

“Share the Journey”

Pope Francis has launched a two-year “Share the Journey” campaign aimed to encourage Catholics to learn about and encounter migrants and refugees, breaking down barriers of fear and building bridges. To learn more, visit www.diolc.org/social-concerns.

PCCW Advent Sale Table

St. Raymond's PCCW will once again be offering Advent items for sale after the weekend Masses on November 18th and 19th, and November 25th and 26th. Items offered include Advent wreaths and candles, Advent calendars and magnetic stickers. Rosaries, Crucifixes, prayer books and other items are great Christmas gift ideas. Please stop by the table to find items to add to your home for the Christmas season. Thank you for supporting St. Raymond's PCCW!